

Interested in Sharing your voice - Apply for City Boards and Committees

City-led boards, committees and commissions are made up of a combination of Council, stakeholder and citizen members. The City of Regina is looking to fill 38 vacancies over 10 boards and committees. Appointments are made by City Council through an inclusive, transparent, and equitable process.

We are looking for qualified applicants who are passionate about their community and want to share their voices on a wide range of issues. Representative citizen members will provide a varied and valued perspective, reflecting and honouring the diversity of our community and bring experience, skills and expertise that contribute to good governance and informed decision making.

To apply you must be a Canadian Citizen, 18 or older and a full-time resident of Regina.

Apply at Regina.ca/yourcity

Deadline to apply: 5 p.m. Monday, September 30, 2024. Candidates will be notified of appointment by January 31, 2025.

Name Of Committee	Description	Term	# of Vacancies
Accessibility Advisory Committee	The Accessibility Advisory Committee advises City Administration and Council on strategies to improve the accessibility and inclusivity of services, programs, facilities and other infrastructure. The Committee also provides advice and recommendations on making the City's services, facilities and infrastructure accessible and barrier-free and advises on related public awareness campaigns. Estimated amount of time dedication per week/month: 3 – 6 hours/month Remuneration: No	Up to 3 years	5
Audit and Finance Committee	The Audit and Finance Committee is responsible for considering and making recommendations to Council pertaining to systems and process related to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The preparation of financial statements, risk management, disaster recovery, internal controls, regulatory compliance; procurement; and - Internal and external audit. Note: No person appointed to the committee can hold a municipal, provincial or federal elected or appointed office, or be employed by any level of government on a full-time basis directly or under contract. Remuneration: No	Up to 3 years	2
Board of Revision	The Board of Revision hears appeals against property tax assessments and local improvement assessments. The adjudication process includes Hearings where the Appellant and City Administration provide evidence and argue their case before the Board, after which the Board provides its final written Decision to all parties. Estimated amount of time dedication per week/month: 8-16 hours/week during appeal season, plus 3-5 hours/week for decision writers. Remuneration: Yes	Up to 3 years	5
Board of Police Commissioners	The Board of Police Commissioners provides civilian oversight and governance for the Regina Police Service (RPS). It serves as the link between Regina residents and the RPS and is responsible for guiding the direction, policy, priorities and long-term plans for the Regina Police Service, including the annual Police budget. Estimated amount of time dedication per week/month: 5 to 10 hours/month Remuneration: Yes	Up to 2 years	4
Development Appeal Board	The Development Appeals Board hears appeals for relaxations of the Zoning Bylaw. The process includes Hearings where the Appellant and City Administration provide evidence and argue their case before the Board with respect to a zoning matter, after which the Board provides its final written Decision to all parties. Estimated amount of time dedication per week/month: 3 – 5 hours/month Remuneration: Yes	Up to 3 years	1
Regina Appeal Board	The Regina Appeal Board hears appeals related to community standards and property maintenance Orders. It could also include appeals related to taxi and tow truck licenses, vehicles for hire and body rub establishments. The adjudication process includes a Hearing where the Board hears related evidence and arguments, discusses, and considers the information, and provides a final written Decision. Estimated amount of time dedication per week/month: 3 to 5 hours/month Remuneration: Yes	Up to 3 years	1
Regina Planning Commission	The Regina Planning Commission advises and makes recommendations to City Council regarding community development, including City Planning & Development policies, programs and services. This could include discretionary use applications, the designation of heritage properties and districts, rail relocation matters, long term planning items and policy and guidelines for the naming of streets, city facilities and parks. Estimated amount of time dedication per week/month: 4 hours/month Remuneration: No	Up to 3 years	3

Interested in Sharing your voice - Apply for City Boards and Committees cont...

Name of Committee	Description	Term	# of Vacancies
Regina Downtown Business Improvement District	The Board encourages the development of a vibrant and prosperous downtown by improving the appearance and image of the district, promoting and marketing the district, and undertaking various initiatives and projects that facilitate the ongoing rejuvenation and redevelopment of the area. Estimated amount of time dedication per week/month: 2 – 6 hours/month Remuneration: No	Up to 3 years	5
Regina Public Library Board	The Regina Public Library Board is responsible for the general management, operations, regulations and control of public libraries and sets policy for the management of the public libraries within the City of Regina. Estimated amount of time dedication per week/month: 3 to 5 hours/month Remuneration: Yes	2 years	4
Regina Warehouse Business Improvement District	The Regina Warehouse Business Improvement District Board encourages the development of a vibrant and prosperous Old Warehouse district by improving the area's appearance and image, promoting and marketing the area, and undertaking initiatives and projects that facilitate the ongoing rejuvenation and redevelopment of the area. Estimated amount of time dedication per week/month: 2 – 6 hours/month Remuneration: No	Up to 3 years	8

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO CONSIDER SHORT-TERM DEBT FINANCING AND BORROWING BYLAW

The City of Regina hereby gives notice, pursuant to sections 101 and 102 of The Cities Act and The Public Notice Policy Bylaw, Bylaw No. 2020-28, of its intention to consider short-term borrowing for operating expenditures in a maximum principal amount of $10 million including borrowing a maximum principal amount of $1 million for a procurement/purchasing card program. This debt is to fund ongoing operating expenditures and is part of the current banking agreements of the City. This request is moving forward as part of a request to extend the City's current banking agreements for a two year period.

The particulars of the report on the short-term borrowing will be considered by the Audit and Finance Committee on September 10, 2024 at 4:00pm and then by City Council on September 25, 2024 at 1:00 p.m. The details of the short-term borrowing bylaw will be considered at the October 9, 2024 City Council meeting at 1:00 p.m. All meetings are at Henry Baker Hall, City Hall.

Citizens who want to address the Audit and Finance Committee on September 10, 2024 may attend via teleconference or in person. To attend, you must register by completing the online form on Regina.ca/register no later than noon on Monday, September 9, 2024.

Citizens who want to address City Council may attend the meetings listed above via teleconference or in person. To attend Council, you must register by completing the online form on Regina.ca/register no later than noon on September 23, 2024 for the September 25th, 2024 meeting and no later than October 7, 2024 for the October 9, 2024 meeting. A written brief is required to present at a Council meeting. Find more information about presenting to Council and Committees on Regina.ca. If attending by teleconference you must also provide the telephone number you will be using to call into the meeting with, when registering. You will receive meeting details and instructions after you have confirmed your attendance for the meeting.

Dated at the City of Regina, in the Province of Saskatchewan, this 31st day of August 2024.

PLACE YOUR CLASSIFIED AD
IN THE
REGINA LEADER
POST TODAY!
leaderpost.com/placeanad